

Reading

Frederick Douglass

Together

The Meaning of the Fourth of July for the Negro

First delivered July 5, 1852 by abolitionist Frederick Douglass

Thursday, July 5, 2018

Grafton Common

rain location: Apple Tree Arts

5:30 Light refreshments

5:30 Blackstone Valley Chorus

6:00 Reading of the speech

6:45 Discussion

massHUMANITIES

A Commonwealth of Ideas

sponsors:

Unitarian Universalist Society of Grafton & Upton | Grafton Historical Society
Grafton Public Library | Friends of the Grafton Public Library | Apple Tree Arts